

the RISTRETTO

{ 1 MILE FOR THOSE WHO ONLY
WANT A LITTLE }

Gradually make your way northeast towards Meeting St.

Hang a left onto Meeting St. Watch for it: there may be a saxophonist on the corner.

Traipse on up to Reid St. and hang another left. Feel free to make a quick stop at Burr's Discount Beverages, if necessary (we're not judging you).

Hang one more left at King St. Feel like you're going in circles? Stop by Morris Sokol Furniture for a quick snooze.

Power through the home stretch and take a final right onto Vanderhorst. There will be a gorgeous new church on your left. Keep going, almost there!

Arrive at Kudu Coffee and Craft Beer (4 Vanderhorst St., on the right). Get a free cup of coffee on BiblioLabs and celebrate your achievement!

Spring from the starting blocks, heading northeast towards Meeting St.

Diverge from the walkers, taking a right onto Meeting St. There's a Courtyard hotel on your left (in case you've already changed your mind).

Charge down Charleston's Museum Mile along Meeting St. You'll pass six museums, five historic houses, four scenic parks, and maybe a few sick runners.

Yes, you're still on Meeting St. There's nothing else like the fresh smell of homemade sweetgrass baskets and horse manure through the Market.

Stay on E. Bay, back past Market and the baskets and horses.

Just keep running! Just keep running!

Finally, take a left onto Charlotte St. by Pratt Thomas & Walker. Don't get any ideas. The run is covered by liability insurance.

Quick left onto King. You can practically smell the coffee!

Quick right onto Vanderhorst, and you've made it to Kudu Coffee and Craft Beer (4 Vanderhorst St., on the right)! Get a free cup of coffee on BiblioLabs to award your determination and physical prowess!
